Walsingham Pilgrimage

Our annual pilgrimage to Walsingham is being arranged for September 2025. We will travel to Walsingham by coach, leaving early on Monday 8th September, and stay at the Anglican Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham, returning home on Thursday 11th September. Would anyone interested in joining this pilgrimage, particularly new attendees, contact Bill Hoskins to express their interest in joining this pilgrimage. Further details can be found at <https://www.walsinghamanglican.org.uk/visit/stay-2/>.

Additional Curates Society (ACS)

If you have had an alms box for ACS please return it on Easter Day. Thank you. Pam

Heyhouses Foodbank

Please continue to support the Foodbank. Donations can be placed in the basket at the back of church.

Good Friday - Sunday School 11.30 - 12.30

On Good Friday 18th April there will be a meeting of Sunday School. It starts at 11.30 in church for approx. 1 hour. There will be stories, songs and activities. Refreshments will also be served. If you have any children or grandchildren that you would like to bring along, please sign the sheet at the back of church by 13th April. Thank you.

Churches Together Good Friday Service

There will be a short service of hymns, prayers and readings at 12 noon in the Ampitheatre outside Boots Chemist. Some people are meeting at Fylde Christian Services building on St. Andrew's Rd South at 11.15am and walking into The Square together. Whatever you decide you will be most welcome and we will value your support. Christine

New Electoral Roll

A brand new Electoral Roll is to be drawn up this year. All regular worshippers over the age of 16 are encouraged to have their name on the Roll. Forms are available in church (or in the Parish office and should be posted in the box provided on the piano or at the back of church, Closing date is 15th April in advance of the Annual Parochial Church Meeting on 6th May. Please read the form carefully and fill in both front and back. Any questions please see Gerald Wilson, Electoral Roll officer.

VE Day 80th Anniversary

To honour this day there will be wreaths laid on the graves of our servicemen who died in conflict (WW1 & WW2) and are buried here. It will be fitting if all our graves and memorials can be tended before the end of April. The churchyard is resplendently au naturel at the moment and will not be cut until the end of May so please watch your footing. With thanks to all who tend our war graves and memorials.

Thank you

To everyone who kindly assisted or sang in our rendition of Sir Jon Stainer's The Crucifixion last Sunday, We are delighted to inform you that we raised in the region of £2400 which will be shared between UNICEF Crisis Appeal for Ukraine and The Fylde Foodbank.

Budding Artists

An Art Exhibition is to be held in Church from Thurs 15th May - Sat 17th May. If you are interested in displaying your art work or know someone who is we would love to hear from you. Please contact Lisa Mackenzie 07922826571 or Maggie Chowns 07919 232925.

If you are unable to go to the altar to receive your Holy Communion or a blessing, then please speak to a sidesperson who will arrange for you to receive in your pew.

NOTICES for next Sunday's Pew Sheet should be with the Parish Office by WEDNESDAY NOON at the latest. Notices handed in after this may not be included.

Palm Gospel

Luke 19: 28 - 40

Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, "Why are you untying it?" just say this, "The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, 'Why are you untying the colt?' They said, 'The Lord needs it.' Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, 'Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!' Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, 'Teacher, order your disciples to stop.' He answered, 'I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.'

First Reading

Isaiah 50: 4 - 9a

The servant of the LORD said: The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Second Reading

Philippians 2: 5 - 11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death –even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you humbled yourself in taking the form of a servant, and in obedience died on the cross for our salvation: give us the mind to follow you and to proclaim you as Lord and King, to the glory of God the Father.
